BRYANSTON

WHY BRYANSTON?

Bryanston School is different from other independent schools. Inspired by 90 years of innovative educational practice, our approach to education and our distinctive culture nurtures purposeful, curious and well-rounded individuals.

Our values reflect our commitment to individuality, which lies at the heart of our approach and culture. This is evident in our people, along with a specific kind of creativity which inspires innovative thinking and challenge across all disciplines.

Our distinctive unbounded value speaks to the open-minded, challenging and inspiring nature of the Bryanston experience, our humanity and our pupils, who are curious, self-reliant and purposeful.

Beyond the School, Bryanston embraces educational, cultural and social initiatives. By facing outwards, Bryanston engages with a wide community and shares the positive impact of the approach, ethos and facilities of the School.

Take a closer look at our distinctive approach to education and life beyond the School.

Our culture fosters an open-minded, challenging and inspiring environment for personal growth where we provide the space for pupils to find their passions.

Our relationships are different from the conventional dynamics of pupil and teacher – we see the journey through the School as a collective endeavour to better prepare our pupils for their lives ahead.

Our unique take on creativity as a practical and essential element across all disciplines makes Bryanston a very different learning experience – building a distinctive independence of thought, self-reliance, realism and authenticity.

Bryanston School is situated on a beautiful campus site, with outstanding academic, sporting, creative, equestrian and outdoor facilities in Blandford Forum in Dorset.

We welcome pupils from the UK and overseas at age 13 (Year 9) and for sixth form entry (Year 12) and occasionally in other years.

Pupils seeking bursaries should contact our admissions team to find out more about our commitment to inclusion and access.
