

BRYANSTON

A low-angle, upward-looking photograph of a large, mature tree. The trunk is thick and textured, with several large branches extending upwards and outwards. The leaves are a mix of vibrant green and bright yellow, suggesting an autumn setting. The sky is a clear, bright blue, visible through the canopy of leaves. The overall mood is serene and natural.

Directions to Bryanston

Bryanston is located approximately 24 miles south-west of Salisbury and 14 miles north-west of Poole. The school and 400-acre estate are situated just outside the Georgian market town of Blandford.

From the Blandford ring road, follow the brown tourist signs to the Brewery Visitor Centre. Go past the Brewery Visitor Centre on your right then continue a short distance until you come to a mini-roundabout with the school gates directly ahead. Go through the archway and continue up the main drive following signs for School. Visitor parking is in front of the main school building.
